CODY ANNOUNCES TRIO OF PLAYERS

Boise Magnate Signs Up Twirler Martin and Fielders Pauli and Wilbur.

Special to The Tribune.
BOISE, Ida., Jan. 28.—Manager Cody of the Boise Union league baseball club is signing a bunch of youngsters for his team Wednesday. He received by wire the information that Fred Martin, a pitcher of promise in the California State league, has accepted a contract to play in Boise.

Martin is regarded by Cody and others who have seen him work as a second Walter Johnson. He is 22 years old, stands six feet two with his shoes off, and tips the beam at 185 pounds. Last season he played with the Stockton team in the California State league. This year he has received overtures from the Portland and Vernon clubs in the Pacific Coast league.

He was on the verge of signing with Portland when he received the contract made him by Cody. Martin believes he has a better chance to land in the big leagues if he plays with Boise than he would if he swung his arm for the Portland club, and at the last moment he decided to come to Boise.

Another consideration that led Martin to accept Cody's contract is the fact that C. O. Wilbur, an infielder, formerly of the Stockton team in the California State league, and Pauli, an outfielder of the Oakland club, have signed contracts with Cody. Wilbur and Pauli are chums of Martin's and he prefers to be with them at a somewhat smaller salary than he would receive in Portland.

Some of the "A. A. U." wrestlers, however, say that they have planned on the trip and will go even if they have to risk their standing with the A. A. U.

Still Another White Man's Hope

Special to The Tribune.
DENVER, Colo., Jan. 28.—Wyoming has a white man's hope who has been entered in the Denver Athletic club wrestling and boxing tournament and who is expected to clean up everything in the heavyweight class. His name is John W. Young and he hails from Shoshoni, Wyo. He was unearched up there by Doctor Charles Maher, the sportsman who is well known in this city. Dr. Maher and John Carmichael are sending Young down to the tournament and probably one or both of them will accompany him to watch his workout.

Young is a local specimen of the plainsman. He has led an outdoor life and is solid muscle. He is quick for his size, according to the description sent down here and, while Carl Morris, the Sapulpa hope, has the advantage of him in all save weight, the Wyoming backer believes that their man will prove the better of the two with the same experience.

The present plan is to give Young a thorough try-out in the tournament and if he does as well as it is believed he will, he will probably be started on the professional route.
